CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The following standards of conduct will apply to employees of the PMU.

Influence: No employee shall accept or solicit any gift, favor, or service that might reasonably tend to influence him or her in the discharge of official duties or that the employee knows or should know is being offered with the intent to influence his or her official conduct.

No employee shall intentionally or knowingly solicit, accept, or agree to accept any benefit for having exercised his or her official powers or performed his or her official duties in favor of another.

Confidentiality: No employee shall accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which the employee might reasonably expect would require or induce the employee to disclose confidential information acquired by reason of his or her official position.

No employee shall disclose confidential information gained by reason of his or her official position or otherwise use such information for his or her personal gain or benefit.

Personal gain: No employee shall transact any business in his or her official capacity with any outside business entity of which the employee is an officer, agent, or member, or in which the employee owns a substantial interest.

No employee shall make personal investments which could reasonably be expected to create a substantial conflict between the employee's private interest and the university's interest.

Judgment: No employee shall accept other employment or compensation which could reasonably be expected to impair the employee's independence of judgment in the performance of the employee's duties to the university.
